

m: 245 R. R. William & Richard James I. h N.B. 9. 17.
 1587

THE COPIE OF THE Kings Maiesties Letters Patents for the making of Allomies, in ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, and IRELAND, or in any other his Maiesties Dominions made to WILLIAM TARNOR, TERNOR, &c.

His Indenture made the one and twentieth day of April; in the yeeres of the raigne of our Soueraign Lord James, by the grace of God King of England, Scotland, Fraunce, & Ireland, defender of the faith, &c. That is to say, of England, Fraunce & Ireland the eighth, of Scotland the three and fortieth. Betweene our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie on the one part, and William Tarnor, Richard Bowdler and Thomas Jontes of London mar-chants on the other part witnesseth. That wherby our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings

21. Apr. 8th 1587

MUSEVM
 BRITAN
 NICVM

Maiestie,
 J

Allomes.

*The letters Patents to the Lord Sheffeylde
and others.*

0.1 Jan. 4. 1571

31. yeeres.

Maiestie, by his Highnesse letters Patents, sealed with the great seale of England, bearing date at Westminster the third day of Ianuary in the fourth yeere of his Raigne of England, Fraunce and Ireland, and of Scotland the fortieth: For the considerations therein expressed, did giue and graunt vnto histrustie and right welbeloued Edmond Lord Sheffeld, Lord President of the North parts, and to sir Thomas Challoner knight, sir Dauid Fowlys knight, and sir Iohn Bourchier knight, then by the name of Iohn Bourchier esquire, and to euery of them, their and euery of their executors, administrators, and assignes, diuers absolute, full, and free licenses, powers and authorities as therein are mentioned, for touching or concerning the sole and onely making of Allomes and the liquors thereof within the Realmes of England, Scotland, & Ireland, and euery or any of them, and in all other his Maiesties dominions, for the terme of one and thirty yeeres next ensuing the date of the said letters Patents (except as in the same letters Patents is excepted) yeelding & paying therefore yeerely vnto his Maiestie, his heires and successors, from and after the terme

Allomes.

of two yeeres next comming after the date of the said letters Patents, the yeerely rent or yeerly summe of seauen hundred pounds of lawfull ^{900^l - rent} English money, at such place and times, and in such maner and forme as in and by the said letters Patents the same is limited and appointed to be paid, as, in, and by the said letters Patents more plainely appeareth. And whereas the said Edmond Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowlys, and Iohn Bouchier by their Indenture bearing date the third day of February, in the said yeeres of the raigne of our said 3rd <sup>The Patentees grant to the Merchants undertakers.</sup> Feb. 4th Jan Souveraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie that now is, of England, Fraunce and Ireland the fourth, and of Scotland the fortieth, did grant to the said William Turnor and vnto Nicholas Crispe, Ellys Crispe, William Hynde, and Abraham Chambrlane of London Merchants, and to euery of them, their executors, administrators and assignes, and to their deputies, factors, seruants and as-signes, and to all and euery of them full and absolute power and authoritie, that they their executors, administrators, factors, deputies, ser-uants & assignes, should or might at all times, and from time to time during the said terme

Allomes.

of one and thirtie yeeres in the said letters Patents mentioned, digge open and worke for all maner of mines and ewers of Allomes, and the liquors thereof, aswell within all or any the severall lands or grounds of the said Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowlis, and John Bouchier, or any of them within the Countie of Yorke and elsewhere wheresoever within the said Realmes of England, Scotland and Ireland, as in & vpon such other grounds, lands and possessions within any his Maiesties dominions, as they the said William Turner, Nicholas Crispe, Ellys Crispe, William Hinde, and Abraham Chambrelan, or any of them, their or any of their executors or assignes should agree and compound for with any the owners thereof in as large and ample maner as the said Edmond Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowlis and John Bouchier, and euery or any of them their heires or assignes, could or might in al such places as are mentioned in the said recited Indenture (except as in the said Indenture is excepted) together with such free ingresse, egress, and regresse, and such other authority, benefit, libertie and priuilege as in the said Indenture

Allomes.

Indenture is at large exprest and declared. By which Indenture it was couenanted, concluded and agreed by and betweene all the parties to the same Indenture: That from and after all allowances, paiments, disbursements, and deductions of all such summe and sums of money as they the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators or assigns, had or should pay or disburse in or about the making of Allomes, or the liquors thereof, together with the interest thereof after the rate of ten in the hundred for the forbearance of one whole yeere. That the twentieth part of all such cleere gaines and proceed of all such Allomes as should be made vpon the grounds of the said Edmond Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, and Iohn Bourchier, or any of them, which vpon euerie account to be made, should appeare to remaine or come of the sale of the said Allomes to be made, should be yeerely during the residue of the said terme, vpon euerie account to be made paid and allowed vnto such of the said Edmond Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid

Allomes.

Fowlis, and Iohn Bouchier, their heires, executors or assignes, as should haue any houses built or erected vpon any of their grounds rateable and proportionably according to the number of tunnes of Allomes that should be made vpon such their grounds respectiue in lieu and recompence of such their grounds and buildings thereupon made or to be made, for the making of Allomes. And the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde, and Abraham Chambrelan, did in and by the said Indenture for them and euery of them their heires, executors, and administrators by feuerall couenants, couenant and grant to and with the said Edmond Lord Sheffeld, his executors and assignes, and to and with the said Thomas Challoner, his executors or assignes, and to and with the said David Fowlis, his executors and assignes, and to and with the said Iohn Bouchier, his executors and assignes, that they the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators or assignes, should from time to time after all allowances, payments, disbursements, and deductions of all such summe

and

Allomes.

and summes of mōney as they the said William Turnor, Nichollas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators or assignes, had or should pay or disburse in or about the making of Allomes, and the liquors thereof together with the interest thereof after the rate of ten in the hundred for the forbearance thereof for one whole yeere, pay vnto the said Edmond Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, and Iohn Bourchier, and to euery of them seuerally and respectiue, and to the seuerall and respectiue executors, administrators or assignes of them, and euery of them one seuerall and respectiue fourth part of a moietie, or of one halfe of the whole cleare gaines and proceed thereof remaining, by the making, vttering and sale, either within any the Kings Realmes or Dominions, or without, of all or any Allomes, and of any profit which should be or appeare to haue come vnto the hands of the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators and assignes, or any of them by any Allomes, by them or any of them, made, vttered, transf-

Allomes.

The release of Magdalen Hinde.

transported, sould, or remaining vnuttered or vnfould. And whereas since that time the said William Hinde made and declared his last will & testament and thereof ordained one Magdale late his wife to be his Executrix which Magdale by her deede bearing date the twentieth day of Aprill now last past, did grant & release to the said William Turnor Nicholas Crispe Ellys Crispe and Abraham Chambrelan all her interest in and to the said letters Patents and Indenture before menti oned? and in and to the licences powers priu ledges and authorities thereby or by either of them giuen and granted as aforesaid, by vertu whereof they the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, were lawfully possessed of all the licences, powers priuiledges and authorities by the saide Ed mond Lord Sheffeld, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Da uid Fowlis, and Iohn Bourchier, by the said Inden ture graunted and of all that other moitie of the cleare gains that had or should arise, come o grow by the said letters Patents, and the licen ces, priuileges and authorities thereby granted or by the making of any Allomes or liquor thereof. And whereas the said sir Thomas Cha lome

Allomes.

loner being by vertue of his Maiesties said let-Patents, and the graunts and couenants of the said last mentioned Indenture lawfully interefed, in and to haue one fourth part of the moyetie or one halfe of the whole cleere gaines and proceed comming arising and remainning, by the making, vttering, or sale within any the Kings Realmes or Dominions, or with out, of any the said Allomes, or the liquors thereof, at any time during the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres in the said letters Patents mentioned, and of all such profit as should be or appeare to haue come to the hands of the aforesaid William Turnor, Nicholas Crisp, Ellis Crisp, William Hinde deceased, and Abraham Chambrelan their executors administrators and assignes or any of them, by any Allomes by them or any of them during the said Terme of one and thirtie yeers, made, vttered, transported or sold, or remayning vnuttered or vnould by his Indenture tripertite, bearing date the last day of February in the yeeres of the raigne of our said Soueraigne Lord King I A M E S of England Fraunce and Ireland the fifth, and of Scotland the one and fortieth. For the causes and confi-

*Sir Thomas
Challoners
fourth part.*

B

derations

Allomes.

derations therein expressed, did grant, bargayn and sell, conuey, assigne, and let ouer vnto Sir William Fleetewood Knight, his executors administrators and assignes, two parts of his the said Sir Thomas Challoner's fourth part into three parts being deuided of the said moyetie, or one halfe of the said whole cleare gaynes, proceed, and profit, and all the estate, right, title, terme, interest and demaund of him the said Sir Thomas Challoner, of, in, and to the said two parts of his the said Sir Thomas Challoner's fourth parte into L. Sheffields three partes being deuided. And whereas the fourth part. said Edmond Lord Sheffield, being by vertue of his Maiesties said letters Patents and the graunts and couenants before recyted, lawfully interested in, and to haue one fourth part of the moietie, or one halfe of the whole cleere gains and proceed and profit aforesaid, by one Indenture bearing date the first day of March, in the yeeres of the raigne of our said Soueraigne Lord King IAMES, of England, Fraunce and Ireland the sixt, and of Scotland the two and fortith: For the considerations therein expressed, did giue, grant, bargaine and sell vnto Christopher Turnor of Reading, in the Countie of Barkshire Clothier,

Allomes.

Clothier, the moietie or one half of his said Patentees part, which is the moietie or one halfe of the fourth part of a moietie or one halfe of the cleare gaines, proceed, and profit aforesaid, & by one other Indenture bearing date the eleuenth day of the said moneth of March, for the considerations therein expresse, did giue, graunt, bargain and sell vnto Alexander Stafford of Holborne in the Countie of Middlesex gentleman, his executors, administrators, and assignes, all that other moietie of his said Patentees part, which is the moietie, or one halfe of the fourth part of a moietie, or one halfe of the whole cleere gaines proceed and profit which should come by the making of Allomes, & the liquors thereof; and also one equall third part of one other fourth part of one other moietie or one halfe (being the one third part of the said Iohn Bourchiers patentees part) of the whole cleare gaines proceed and profit which should come by the making of Allomes, & the liquors thereof, which said third part was granted, or mentioned to be granted by the said Iohn Bourchier, in or by his deed vnto the said Lord Sheld his executors and assignes during the term

Allomes.

in the said letters Patents mentioned, and also the said twentieth part of all such cleere gaines, and proceed of all such Allomes as should bee made vpon any the grounds of the said Lord Sheffeild, during al the residue of the said terme, by vertue of the said letters Patents, and of all or any the Indentures in the said last recited Indenture mentioned and recited, which should be or appeare to haue come to the hands of the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde deceased, and Abraham Chambretan their executors, administrators, and assigns, or any of them, by any Allomes by thē, or any of them then to fore, or then, or then after to be made vttered, transported, or sould: to be had & holden to him the said Alexander Stafford his executors, administrators and assigns for and during so long time as in the same last recited Indenture is limited and expresse: both which said last recited Indentures made by the said Edmond Lord Sheffeild vnto the said Christopher Turnor and Alexander Stafford, were made vnto them at the onely instance and request of the said William Turnor vpon trust & confidence reposed by him the said William Turnor in them

Allomes.

the said Christopher Turnor and Alexander Stafford, and to and for the onely benefit and behoofe of him the said William Turnor his executors, administrators, and assigns. And whereas in and ^{Articles} by certaine articles of agreement, indented ^{quadrupartite.} quadrupartite made, concluded and agreed vpon on the sixt day of May, in the yeere of our Lord God one thousand six hundred and nine, betweene the right Honorable Robert Earle of Salisbury, Lord High Treasurer of England, and sir Iulius Caesar knight, Chauncelor, and vnder Treasurer of his Maiesties Exchequer of the first part; and the said Edmond Lord Sheffeld, Iohn Bouchier then esquire, and now knight, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford of the second part, the said sir Thomas Challoner, sir Da-uid Fowles, and sir William Fleetwood knights of the third part: And the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan of the fourth part, reciting as therein is recited, and reciting also: That wheras there was a stocke & ^{The Stocke.} diuers other disbursments of money laid out by the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde deceased, and Abraham Chambrelan, for the perfecting & effecting of the 6^o may, 1609

Allomes.

saïd works, concerning the making of the saïd Allomes, and the liquors therof, which stocke, and other the disbursments laid out by the saïd William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde deceased, and Abraham Chambrelan, in, and about the making and perfecting of the saïd Allome works, amounting to a great summe of money, as it had beene alreadie audited, examined, and allowed. The saïd William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, for the considerations therein after in the saïd articles quadripertite mentioned, did bargain and sell vnto our saïd Soueraigne Lord the King, together with the interest & increase growing by the saïd disbursments then alreadie past. And also all that the saïd moietie and halie part to the saïd William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, belonging of all the cleare profit which might or should grow, for, by, or in respect of the saïd stocke, disbursments, and increase, and all the benefit of all that moietie which they the saïd William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, then had, or should, or might then after haue by vertue of the saïd letters

Allomes.

ters Patents, or by reason of any composition then to fore made, with the said Lord Sheffield, and others the said Patentees or any of them, for, and concerning onely the said moietie of the benefit of the said letters Patents, or by any other meanes whatsoeuer: In consideration whereof, the said Lord Treasurer and sir Iulius Caesar knight, by the said articles of agreement quadripertite, did agree for, and on his Maiesties behalfe, that our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie, his heires, and successors should pay or cause to be paid; and the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators, and assignes, should haue & receaue of his Maiestie, his Heires and successors, as well the yeerely summe of six thousand fortie and foure pounds of lawfull English money to be paid yeerely to the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators or assignes, by his Maiestie, his Heires or successors, as the same should arise out of the Allomes which should then after be made, during so many yeeres as were in the said letters Patents mentioned, and which

Allomes.

Particular paiments and charges.

13.

which were then to come and vnexpired: as also the summe of one thousand and seuen pounds of lawfull money of England to bee paid in such maner and forme as in the said articles of agreement quadripartite is mentioned and expresse. And the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, did thereby for them their executors, administrators and assignes, couenant and promise to saue, and keepe harmelesse our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his Heires, and successors, of and from the particular paiments & charges therein after particularly mentioned. And in consideration of the paiments of the said yeerely sums last mentioned, and of the discharging of his Maiestie his Heires and successors, off and from the paiment thereof, the said Lord Treasurer and sir Iulius Caesar, by the said articles of agreement quadripartite, did agree for & on his Maiesties behalte, that his said Maiestie, his Heires and successors should paie, or cause to be paid, and the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors administrators or assignes, should haue of his Maiestie his Heires or successors out of the Al

lome

Allomes.

lomes to be made as is aforesaid, the summe of one thousand pounds of lawfull English money (ouer and aboue the summes aforesaid) to be paid vnto them or some or one of them, at or before the first day of Maie, which then should be in the yeere of our Lord God, according to the computation of the Church of England, one thousand six hundred & sixteen; And also that his Maiestie his Heires or successors should pay or cause to be paid, And that they the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators, or assignes, should haue of his Maiestie his heires and successors, the summe of fower thousand pounds of like lawfull money of England, to be paid out of the Allomes as aforesaid, (ouer and aboue the summes aforesaid) to be paid vnto them or one of them in manner and forme in the said articles of agreement quadripartite mentioned. And also that from, and after the first day of May, in the yeere of our Lord God one thousand six hundred and seuentee, our said Soueraigne Lbrd the Kings Maiestie, his heires, and successors, should pay, or cause to be paid. And the said

1^o May 1616

Fower thousand pounds

One thousand pound per annuum.

C

William

Allomes.

William Turton, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, or some, or one of them, their, or some or one of their executors, administrators, or assignes, should haue and receaue of his said Maieitie, his Heires, and successors, the yeerely summe, or paiement, of one thousand pounds of like lawfull English money, to be paid out of the said Allomes, as is afore said, (ouer and aboue the summes afore said) to bee paid yeerely, & euery yeere vpon the first day of May, yeerely and euery yeere, for and during so many of the yeeres as were in the said letters Patents, mentioned, and which from and after the said first day of Maie, in the said yeere of our Lord God (according to the computation of the Church of England) one thousand six hundred, and seuentene, should by efflu-on of time be then to come & vnexpired. And ator before the third day of Ianuarie, which then should be, in the yeere of our Lord God (according to the computation of the Church of England) one thousand six hundred thirtie and seuen, being the full end, and determination of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres mentioned in the said letters Patents, as the

3. Jan. 1637
666. pound,
13. shillings,
4. pence.

same

Allomes.

same by time should expire the summe of six hundred, threescore and six pounds, thirteene shillings, and foure pence, of like lawful English money (ouer and aboue the summes aforesaid,) the said seuerall paiments to be made at such place, and places, as in the said articles is expressed and specified; And in and by the said articles of agreement quadripartite it is mentioned, that the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, did also for the considerations therein mentioned, bargain, sell, and assigne, vnto our said Soueraigne Lord the King, all those houses, implements, horses, stocks, necessities, commodities, profits, and things, by them, the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, or any of them there then yfed, imploied, or occupied, for, with, or about, or in respect, of the working, or making of Allomes, or the liquors thereof. And also all contracts, couenants, promises, assurances, conueiances, rights, titles, accounts, and demands, which they, or any of them, could, or might haue, take, or vse, with, touching, or against any person, or persons, or, or in respect of any matter, or thing concerning Houses, implements, stocks, and profits of W. Turner &c. sold to his Maiesty.

Allomes.

His Maie-stie to discharge W.
Turnor, &c.
of al charges.

cerning the said making of Allomes, or the liquors thereof, for which purpose they should allow all things done by his Maiestie in their names in these behalfe. In respect whereof, the said Lord Treasurer, and sir Julius Caesar, by the said articles of agreement quadripartite, did also agree on his Maiesties behalfe, That his Maiestie, his heires, and successors, should free, exonerate, and discharge the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, their, and euery of their executors, administrators, and assignes, against all other person and persons, whatsoeuer, for, or in respect of any thing to be performed on the parts, or behalfe of the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, their executors, administrators, or assignes, or any of them, for, or in respect of any such contracts, couenants, promises, assurances, conueyances, rights, titles, actions, or demaunds, before bargayned, sould, graunted, or assigned to his Maiestie as is aforesaid. And the said Lord Shelsfeild, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowles, sir William Fleetewood, John Bouchier, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford, by the said articles of agreement

Allomes.

agreement quadripartite (for the considerations therein after mentioned) did bargain, sell, and assigne ouer vnto our said Soueraign Lord the King, all those foure parts of the aforesaid moietie, which they, the said Lord Sheffeld, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, sir William Fleetwood, Iohn Bouchier, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford, or any of them, then had, might, or ought to haue, by vertue of the said letters Patents, and by reason of the said Indenture, composition, and agreement, made betweene them, the said Lord Sheffeld, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, and Iohn Bouchier, and the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde deceased, and Abraham Chambrelan, as is aforesaid, or betwixt any of them, or by vertue of any the before recited Indentures. In consideration whereof the said Lord Treasurer of England, and sir Iulius Caesar knight, by the said articles of agreement quadripartite, did agree for, and on his Maiesties behalfe, that his Maiestie, his heires and successors, should pay, or cause to be paid, and that the said sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, sir William Fleetwood, Iohn Bouchier, Christopher Tur-

*Three shou
sand pound
to be paid to sir Thomas
Challoner
and others.*

Allomes.

nor, and Alexander Stafford, their executors, administrators, or assignes, should haue, and receaue of his Maiestie, his heires, and successors, the full summe of three thousand pounds, of lawfull money of England (ouer and aboute the six thousand fortie fower pounds, and the other summes to be paid as aforesaid) to be deuiedly paid to them, the said sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, sir William Fleetwood, Iohn Bowchier, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford, and to euery of them seuerally, and respectiue-ly, and to their seuerall and respectiue executors, administrators, and assignes, in maner and forme in the said articles expresse and specified. And also that his Maiestie, his heires and successors, should paie, or cause to be paid; And that the said Lord, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, sir William Fleetwood, Iohn Bowchier, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford, their executors, administrators, or assignes, should also haue, and receiue of his Maiestie, his heires, and successors, yeerely, and euery yeare, during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeares in the said letters patents mentioned, from & after the said first day of May,

Allomes.

May, in the said yeere of our Lord God (according to the computation of the church of England) one thousand sixe hundred and seuentene, the yeerely sum of sixe thousand pounds of like lawfull money of England, to be severally and deuidedly paid to them, the said Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowles, sir William Fleetewood, Iohn Bourchier, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford, their executors, administrators and assignes, in manner and forme in the said articles also mentioned and expressed. And that our Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, should likewise pay, or cause to be paid: and that the said Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowles, sir William Fleetewood, Iohn Bourchier, and Christopher Turnor, their executors, administrators, or assignes, should also haue, and receiue from our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, at, or vpon the third day of January, which shalbe in the yeere of our Lord God (according to the computation of the church of England) one thousand sixe hundred thirtie and seauen being by effluccion of time the full end, and determination of the said terme Sixe thousand pound per annum to the Lord Sheffield and others after the first of May 1617.

1000 pound to the Lord Sheffield and others 3. Ian. 1637.

Allomes.

terme of one and thirtie yeeres mentioned in the said letters patents, the sum of one thousand pounds of lawfull English money to be paid vnto them, the said Lord Sheffeld, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowles, sir William Fleetwood, Iohn Bouchier, and Christopher Turnor, and to their executors administrators, or assignes, at the place, or places in the said articles mentioned, deuidedly, respectiue, rateably, and proportionable, according to the seuerall summes to them quarterly paicable in maner and forme as is aforesaid: as in and by the said articles of agreement quadripartite, amongst other things therein contained more at large is doth and may appeare. And whereas our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie, by his highnesse letters patents, sealed with the great seal of England, bearing date at Westminster the Nine and twentieth day of October now last past before the day of the date of these Presents, hauing had consideration of the premisses, hath for his highnesse, his heires, and successors, of his especiall grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion allowed, ratified, approued, and confirmed; all and singular

*His Maies-
ties letters patents of his royall assent to the articles quadre-partite.*

Allomes.

the said agreements made betwixt the said Lord Treasurer of England, and Chauncelour of the Exchequer on his Maiesties behalfe, and and the said Edmond Lord Sheffield, sir Thomas Challoner, sir David Fowles, sir William Fleetwood, sir John Bouchier, William Turnor, Nicholas Chrispe, Ellis Crispe, Abraham Chambrelan, Alexander Stasford, and Christopher Turnor, in maner and forme as is afore said, and all & singular the articles indented therein before, in, and by the said letters Patents recited, and to the same articles indented, and to all, & singular the agreements therein contained according to the tenor, forme, and effect thereof, did giue his royall consent, and agreement; and did by the same letters Patents will, and command, that the same, and euery of them, should be duly performed and executed, according to the tenor and true meaning of the same, as in, and by the said letters Patents at large it also doth and may appeare.

Now this Indenture further witnesseth, that our said Soueraigne Lord the King, for, and in consideration of the summe of three thousand pounds of lawfull money of England, into the receipt of his Maiesties Exchequer, to his High-

*His Maies-
ties grant.*

D

nesse

Allomes.

nesse vse, by the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, before the date of these presents, well and truly paid, and for, and in consideration of the yeerely rents, or summes of money heereafter, in, and by these presents referued, and couenanted to be paid, and also for diuers other good causes, and considerations, his Highnesse heereunto especially mouing, of his especiall grace, certeine knowledge and meere motion, and also by, and with the aduise of the said Robert Earle of Salisburie, Lord high Treasurer of England, and sir Iulius Caesar knight, Chauncelour and vnder-Treasurer of his Maiesties Exchequer: Hath giuen, graunted, assigned, and set ouer, and by these presents, for his Highnesse, his Heires, and successors, doth giue, graunt, assigne, and set ouer, vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, all that the said stocke, and other the disbursements laid out by the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, William Hinde deceased, and Abraham Chambrelan, or any of them, in, and about the making, and perfecting of the said Allome works, together with

Allomes.

with the interest, and increase, growing, and to grow, by the said disbursements: And all the said Moietie of the cleere profits. moiety, and halfe part, of all the cleere profit which hath growen, or shall or may grow, for, by, or in respect of the said stocke, disbursements, or increase, and all the benefit of the same moiety, and all the houses, implements, horses and other stockes, necessities, profits, commodities, and things, and all contracts, couenants, promises, assurances, conueiances, rights, titles, actions, and demands whatsoever, in, & by the said articles of agreement, indented quadripartite graunted, bargained, sould, assigned, or set ouer, or mentioned, to be graunted, bargained, sould, or set ouer, by them the said William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, or any of them, vnto our said Soueraign Lord the Kings Maiestie, and all those parts of the aforesaid moiety, or one halfe of the cleere gaines, proceed, and profit remaining, or conning, or which shal come by the making, uttering, transporting, or sale of all, or any Allomes within any his Maiesties Realmes or Dominions, or without, & of all, or any other Allomes what-

Allomes.

*Landes, mines, Al-
lomes.*

foeuer, in, and by the said articles of agreement indented quadripartite, graunted, bargained, sould, assigned, or set ouer, or mentioned to be bargained, sould, assigned, or set ouer by the said Edmond Lord Sheffeld, sir Tho. Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, sir William Fleetewood, Iohn Bouchier esquier, now knight, Christopher Turnor, and Alexander Stafford, vnto our said Soueraigne Lord the King. And also all the lands, mines, houses, buildings, powers, priuiledges, authorities, liberties, bargaines, contracts, stocks, goods, chattles, debts, profits, commodities, and advantages whatsoever, concerning the Allome, mines, and works in the said Countie of Yorke or elsewhere, together with all Allomes heerebefore made, and to be made, from and after the said eighteenth day of December now last past, and the making of Allomes, and the liquors thereof, within the said Realmes & Dominions, and al other things whatsoever which were graunted by the said Edmond Lord Sheffeld, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, sir William Fleetewood, Iohn Bouchier, Christopher Turnor, Alexander Stafford, William Turnor, Nicholas Crispe, Ellis Crispe, and Abraham Chambrelan, or any of them

Allomes.

ent
ed, be he fir bier
A-ord ou-ies,
ds,
ad-
ne, rke erefter last e li-
Do-rich nef-
Wilmor, isse,
y of em

them, vnto our said Soueraigne Lord the King, in, or by the said articles of agreement, indented quadripartite heerein before mentioned.
And all the right, title, terme, interest, benefit, profit, remedie, aduantage, and demaund whatsoever of our said Soueraigne Lord the King; his heires and successors, of, in, to, and for the same, and euery of them, and euery part and parcell thereof. And also our said Soue-raigne Lord the King for the considerations aforesaid, of his further especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, hath, with, and by the aduice of his Priuie Counsell; Giuen and graunted, and by these presents, for him, his heires and successors, doth giue and graunt absolute, full, and free licence, power, and au-thoritie vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, and euery of them, their, and euery of their executors, administrators, and assigns; That they, and euerie of them, their, and euerie of their executors, administrators and assigns by themselves, or any of them, or by their, or any of their Deputies, Factors, assigns, or seruants, shall and may at all times, and from time to time during all such

Allomes.

*Authoritie
to digge and worke.*

and so much of the said one and thirty yeeres to be accounted from the said third day of Ianuary as by course and effluxion of time is yet to come and vnexpired, digge, open, & worke for all maner of mines, and oares of Allomes, and the liquors thereof, and the same to conuert and vse to their and euerie of their most profit and commoditie, aswell in, and vpon all, or any the lands, grounds, and possessions of the said Lord Sheffeld, sir Thomas Challoner, sir Dauid Fowlis, and sir Iohn Bourchier, and euerie, or any of them, within the said County of Yorke, as in, and vpon such other lands, grounds, and possessions, within the said Realmes of England and Ireland, and either of them, and in all other his Maiesties dominions, belonging or appertaining to them, or either of them, as they, or any of them shall agree or compound for with the owners thereof, where it shall bee thought fit by them, the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, or any of them, to be most meete and conuenient, aswell within liberties as without. And to the intent that the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones,

Allomes.

Jones, and euery of them, their, and euerie of their executors, administrators, deputies, factors, and assignes, shall and may enioy the ful and sole benefit and profit of making and digging of and for Allomes, & liquor for Allomes within his Maiesties Realmes and dominions, during all the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres; his Maiesties will and pleasure is, and by these presents his Highnesse of his especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, and of his supreme and absolute power and authoritie, which he forbiddeth to be disputed, argued, or brought in question, doth straightly charge and command all, and and euery person, or persons whatsoeuer, of what estate, degree, or condition soeuer, he or they, or any of them be, that none of them, other then the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, deputies, seruants, factors, or assignes, or some of them, shall during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, attempt, presume, or goe about any maner of way, directly or indirectly, in any lands, grounds, or possessions, within this his Maiesties Realmes of

Prohibition and restraint for all others but the Patentees.

Allomes.

of England and Ireland, or either of them, or any other his Maiesties dominions, thereunto belonging, to digge, open, or worke for any mines, or aores, of the said Allomes, or the liquors thereof, or any thing belonging to the same, vpon paine of forfeiture, of all and euery such Allomes, and the liquors therof, for which any person or persons shall so digge, open, or worke, in any lands, grounds, or possessions, within his Maiesties said Realmes of England or Ireland, or either of them, or in any his Maiesties dominions thereunto belonging, contrarie to the true intent and meaning of these presents. All which said forfeitures, the Kings Maiestie, for him, his heires, and successors, doth by these presents giue and graunt vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, & Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, or assigns. And also vpon such further paines, penalties, and imprisonments, as his Maiestie his heires or successors by any the lawes or statutes of this Realme of England, or by his Highnesse prorogatiue and roiall iurisdiction, may any way appoint, asseffe, or adiudge in that behalfe. And also that it shall and may be lawfull to and for them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, and euerie of them, Authority to transport.

Allomes.

their, and euerie of their executors, administrators, deputies, factors, and assignes, at all and euerie time and times heereafter, during all the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, to transport, carrie, and conuey any Allome or Allomes, to any place or countrie whatsoeuer, or wheresoever, and the said Allomes and the liquors therot, so by them transported, to vtter, sell, and put to sale to any person or persons, at, and for their most benefit, profit and aduantage, according to the true meaning of these presents. And that they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, and euerie of them, their, and euerie of their executors, administrators, deputies, factors, and assignes, at all times heereafter, during all the said terme, shall be free, and discharged of, and from, all, and all maner of customes, subsidies, impost, and other paiments and duties whatsoeuer, due or paicable to his Maiestie, his heires or successors, for, or in respect of the importation or transportation of any Allome, made, or to be made within his

Allomes.

*A warrant to all officers to suffer the Patentees to transport their Al-
lomes.*

Maiesties said Realmes of England or Ireland, or the dominions of the same, or any materials necessarie for the vse or making of the same to any place or countrie whatsoever, or wheresoever, any law, statute, ordinance, prouision, restraint, or any other matter or thing whatsoever to the contrarie thereof in any wise notwithstanding. And therefore our said Soueraigne Lord the King doth by these presents for him, his heires, and successors, straighly charge and command all and singular his Maiesties Customers, Comptrollers, Surueiers, Searchers, Waiters, and other the officers and ministers of his Highnesse, his heires and successors, to whom in that behalfe it shall & may appertaine, that they, and euery of them, doe quietly permit and suffer the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, and euery of them, their, and euery of their executors, administrators and assignes, from time to time & at all times during the residue of the said term of one and thirtie yeeres in the said first recited letters Patents, graunted or mencioned to be graunted, which are yet to come and vnexpired, to shippe, lade, freight, transport, conuey

Allomes.

and carrie out and from any porte, hauen, creeke, or other place of lading, or vnlading, within the same his Maiesties Realmes of England and Ireland, or any of them, or any other his Maiesties dominions, to them, or either of them, belonging, or appertaining to any Allomes, or the liquors thereof by them made or wrought, within his Maiesties said Realmes of England or Ireland, or any part thereof, into any the parts beyond the seas, as is aforesaid, without any custome, subside, or other duties therefore, or for any part or parcell thereof, to be rendred, yeelded, answered or paid vnto his Maiestie, his heires, or successors, of, or for the same. And these presents, or the inrollements thereof, shall be from time to time to the said Customers, Comptrollers, Collectors, Surueyors, Searchers, and other officers and ministers a sufficient warrant and discharge in that behalfe. And furthermore our said Soueraigne Lord the King for him, his heires, and successors, of his highnesse especiall grace, certaine knowledge and meere motion doth by these presents giue, and graunt vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors,

The Patentees to haue place in the Custome to appoint officers and to examine Masters & Owners of Ships.

Allomes.

executors, administrators, and assignes, and to all, and every other person, and persons which by them, or any of them, by writing vnder their, or any of their hands and seales, shalbe in that behalfe deputed, and assigned full, and free power, licence, and authoritie during the continuance of this present graunt, and demise at their pleasures as well to be present, and attendant and to haue place in all maner of Custom houses, Ports, Hauens, Creekes and places of lading, and vnlading of any manner of goods, wares and marchandizes, into, or out of the said Realmes and Dominions: As also to be present with all and every the Customers, Collectors, Comptrollers, Serchers, Surueiers, Waiters, and other officers and ministers, hauing charge for and concerning the lading, or vnlading of any goods, wares, or marchandizes whatsoeuer, Or of the Custome, Subsidie, or Impost due vnto his Maiestie. For, or vpon the same for their better receauing, and enioying of the benefit of this present graunt, at all times, and places when, and where the said Officers, or ministers, or any of them shall by reason of their said seuerall Offices, haue cause,

Allomes.

or occasion to be; And also in euery place, or places as well in ships arriued with Allome & riding in any Port, Rode or Riuer as on the land, to make and appoint such, and so many watchmen, waiters, and officers, and to see provide, and vse such reasonable waies, orders, and meanes as they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, deputies, and assignes, and euery of them, shall and may be iustly, and truly informed of all and singular such parcells, and quantities of Allome as shall at any time, or times during this present graunt, be brought into or transported from any port or place of the said Realmes and Dominions or any of the, And also that it may be lawfull, to and for the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones their executors, administrators, deputies, and assignes, and to, and for euery of them, from time to time during this present graunt, to examine such and so many Masters and Owners of Ships, ~~Barkes~~, and Lighters and all Key-keepers and Mariners for, and concerning any maner of Allome which may happen to be brought into, or transported from or out of

Allomes.

some or any of the said Ports, Hauens, Creekes, and places of lading, and vnlading, or the members of the same, vpon their seuerall oath, and oathes, in as large and ample maner and degree in all things as any Customer, Collector, Comptroller, Searcher, Surueyer, Wayter, or other Officer of the Customes in whatsoeuer Port, Hauen, Creeke, place, or places of this Realme haue, might, or ought to haue done, or hereafter shall, may, or ought to doe, without the let, disturbance, or deniall of any Officer, or other person or persons whatsoeuer.

Authority to take bonds in the Kings name for payment of moneys vpon the sale of Allomes, or any thing thereunto belonging, & may sue execution there-vpon with as large a priuiledge as his Maiesty may do in his own case.

And that all Masters of Ships shall answere in this behalfe as well for euery person of their company of Mariners, and Saylers as for themselves according to the lawes in that case made and provided. And that the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones their executors, administrators, and assignes shall, and may from time to time during this present graunt take sufficient bond, or bonds obligatory in the name of his Highnesse, his heires, and successors of all and euery person and persons whatsoeuer, with suerties or otherwise for the paiement of all, and singular summe and summes of money

Allomes.

ney which are or shall be, or may grow due for or vpon the sale of any Allome, or for, vpon, or by reason of any bargaine, sale, or contract made, or to be made of, or for any other goods comodities, or things whatsoeuer touching or concerning the said Allome mines, or Allome work, or any part or parcel of the same, or touching or concerning any thing thereunto belonging, by these presents demised or mentioned to be graunted as aforesaid, as to them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, deputies, factors or assignes, or any of them, shall seeme meete and conuenient: And to deteine & keep the said bonds, and euery of them, in their or some of their owne hands, and to demandaund, sue for, receaue, haue, and take the full benefit, and aduantage of the same, and of euery of them, to their owne proper vse. And that the said Willie- am Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, and euery of them, shall haue full power and authoritie in his Highnesse name, at their pleasures to implead, sue, prosecute, all and euerie such person and persons, their heires, executors, admi-

these words to be left out

and

Allomes.

administrators and assignes, which shall so become bound as is aforesaid, of, and for all and euerie such summe and summes of money, penalties, and forfeitures, as shall grow, or become due, or paiaable by reason, or meanes of any such bonds or writings obligatorie; And also all and euery person and persons, their heires, executors, administrators, and assignes, who shall by any meanes be found to be indebted, chargeable, or answerable to our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, or to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, or assignes, or any of them, for, or in respect of the said Allome mines, or Allome works, or any part thereof, or of any thing or things whatsoever concerning the same or any part or parcell thereof, And the same summe or summes of money, penalties, forfeitures, and all and euery part and parcell thereof which shall bee recouered or had of the bodies, goods, landes, tenements, or hereditaments of any of them the said person, or persons, their heires, executors, and assignes, and euery of them, to leuie, hold,

and

Allomes.

and take execution thereof to the vse of the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assignes. And furthermore to doe make, take & prosecute in such and the like maner and forme as our said Soueraign Lord the Kings Maiestie, his heires, or successors, in or by, his or their royall prerogatiue, power, and authoritie in his Highnesse, or their owne proper name, or names, or any other whatsoeuer right or title should or might haue done if this present grant to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, or assignes, as before in this behalfe made, had neuer beene had, nor made according to the true intent and meaning of these presents. And also that these presents or the inrolment thereof shall be from time to time aswell to the Chauncelor, Treasurer, and Barons of the Court of Exchequer for the time being, and to all other the officers and ministers of the same Court, as also the Barons Iustices and ministers of his Maiestie, his heires, and successors, of any other Court of Record for the time being, and to euery of them, and to the Attorney and

F

Counsell

Allomes.

Counsell learned in the law of his Maieftie, his heires and fucceffors, and to euery of them, a fufficient warrant and full difcharge, to heare, determine, fue, profecute, leuie, and make execution againft all and euerie perfon and perfons, their heires, executors, adminiftrators, and affignes, by, or vpon whom any of the faid fum or fums of money, penalties, or forfeitures due or paieable vpon, or by reason of any fuch bonds, for or concerning Allome, or the faid Allome mines, or works, or touching or concerning any thing thereunto belonging before by thefe presents demifed and graun-ted, or mencioned to be demifed or graunted, or any part or parcell thereof be or fhall be charged, due, liable, or demaundable in the name of our faid Soueraigne Lord the King, or in the name of his Highneffe heires, executors, adminiftrators, or fucceffors, at the pleafure of them the faid William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, adminiftra-tors or affignes, or any of them, to the proper ufe and behoofe of them the faid William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, adminiftrators, or affignes in maner and forme

5 60 omitted

Allomes.

forme, and according to the true intent & meaning of these present Indentures without any accompt, or other profit or thing whatsoever, to our said Soueraign Lord the King his heires, executors, administrators or successors therfore to be had, paid, or done. The yeerely rents or paiments by these presents reserued, and couenanted to be paid, alwaies excepted, and forprised. And that the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, shall, and may from time to time during the continuance of this present graunt, asigne and conuey vnto our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors, all, or any Bonds or Obligations made or to be made, for, or vpon any bargain, sale, or contract made, or to be made, for, or concerning the said Allomes, mines, Allome workes, and the forfeitures, penalties, and summes of money, in the said Bonds, or Obligations, or any of them contained, and thereupon to sue and take execution in the name of our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or successors, against any person or persons whatsoever, their goods, chattels, lands, tene-

The Patentees may asigne over bonds taken in their owne names to the King, and he out execution in the Kings name, to their owne uses.

or if coleworthy, or other thing shall be done

Allomes.

*Authoritie
to search, seise, make confiscate, take and carrie away all Allomes
brought in,
and a grant therof of the Kings part to the Pa-
tentees.*

ments, or hereditaments, whatsoever liable to the payments of the said summes of money, penalties, or forfeitures in the said bonds, or obligations contained, and the same summes of money, forfeitures, and penalties, to receave, haue, and take to the onely proper vse and behoofe of them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, in manner and forme and according to the true intent, and meaning of these present Indentures, and according to the course of our Court, or Courts of Iustice without any account, or other profit or thing whatsoever to our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or successors, therefore to be had, paid, or done, the yeerely rents or payments by these presents reserued and covenanted to be paid alwaies excepted, and forprised. And our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie for his Highnesse, his heires, and successors, couenanteth and agreeth to & with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, and euerie of them; That they, and euerie of them, their and euerie of their executors,

Allomes.

ecutors, administrators, and assignes, deputies, servants and factors, shall, and may from time to time during the residue of the said one and thirtie yeeres before mentioned; with a Constable of the place, or officer of our Customes, respectively at their will, and pleasure, as well by night as by day goe aboard, view, search, and suruey euery shippe, vessell or bottome, riding or lying within any the ports, hauens, creekes, or places of lading or unlading, within the said Realmes and dominions, & at all times to enter & go into any celler, vault, warehouse, shop, or other place or places, to search & see, if any sort or kind of Allome in the said ships, vessels, or bottomes, cellers, vaults, warehouses, shoppes, or other places, bee, or shall bee there hidden and concealed, hauing been made or brought in, or shipped or laden to be transported from, or out of any his Maiesties said Realmes or Dominions, contrarie to the tenor heereof, and to open any cases, caskes, chestes, fardels, packs, fats, or any other bulke whatsoever, wherein any Allome shall be suspected to be laid vp, packed or concealed; And also to seize and make confiscate, and to take

Allomes.

and carrie away all and euery quantitie and quantities of Allomes so found, & to be found, to be made, brought into, or shipped or laden to be transported or carried from, or out of any his Maiesties said Realmes, or dominions, contrary to his Maiesties said pleasure, as afore-said, all and euene which said Allomes and the liquors thereof so forfeited and confiscate, his Maiestie doth by these presents as much as in his Highnesse is, giue and graunt to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, to the vse of the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, deputies, factors, or assignes, without any accompt, or other thing therefore to his Highnesse, his heires or successors, to bee

*A Prohibi-
tio that none shall bring in any Allomes or vse, or spend being brought in,
other then
the Paten-
tees.*

rendred, or made for the same. And our said Soueraigne Lord the King, for him, his heires, and successors, doth by these presents, straightly prohibite and forbid all & euery person, and persons whatsoever, other then the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, that they, nor any of them, doe or shall at any time or

Allomes.

or times heereafter during the residue of the said terme of one & thirtie yeeres before mentioned, vse, spend, or occupie within his Maiesties Realmes of England or Ireland, or either of them, or any the dominions belonging to the same, or either of them, any Allomes or any liquors of Allomes, which shall heereafter bee brought, either from or out of the Realme of Scotland, or from or out of any the parts beyond the seas, into the said Realmes of England and Ireland, or either of them, or any of the dominions thereof, vpon paine of his Maiesties high displeasure, and vpon such further paines, penalties, & punishments, as by any the lawes or statutes of this Realme, can, or may be inflicted vpon them for their contempt and disobedience in that behalfe. And also that no other person or persons whatsoeuer, other then the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, shall at any time or times heereafter during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, transport, conuey, or carrie out of any the said Realmes of England or Ireland, or any the dominions thereof, any Allomes or liquors

*None shall transport
Allomes
brought in other then
the Paten-
tees.*

Allomes

*Defalcation out of the rent for all Allome
brought into this Realme.*

liquors of Allomes, which shall at any time hereafter be brought into the said Realmes of England or Ireland, or either of them, contrary to the true intent & meaning of these presents: And further, that if any Allomes at any time or times hereafter during the said terme shall happen to be by any means whatsoever brought in or imported into any his Maiesties said Realmes or dominions, last before mentioned, and shall be there sold, spent or vsed by any other person or persons, other then the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators or assigns, or any of them contrarie to the true intent & meaning of these presents: That then his Maiestie, his heires and successors, shall and will defalke and allow vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, & assignes, and it shal & may be lawful to and for them, and euerie of them vpon the passing of their accompts, or paiments of the rents hereby reserued, and vpon such prooffe made of the selling, spending, or vsing of any such Allomes brought into the said Realmes or dominions, and not by him or them seized as aforesaid

Allomes.

faid, contrarie to the true meaning of these presents, as by the Lord Treasurer of England for the time being shall be allowed to be sufficient to defalke and deteine in their owne hands, and to their owne vse so much of the yeerely rents and paiments due and paieable, or coucnanted to be paid vnto his Highnesse, his heires or successors, by vertue of these presents, as the value of the Allomes so to be brought in and sould, spent, or vsed contrarie to the true meaning of these presents as aforesaid, shal amount vnto after the rate of five and twentie shillings the hundred waight for all such Allome as shal be so brought in or imported into any his Majesties said Realmes or dominions, and there sould, spent, or vsed by any person or persons, other then the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators or assigns, at any time or times before the foure and twentieth day of Iune now next comming: And for all such Allome as shall be so brought in or imported sould, spent or vsed as aforesaid, at any time or times after the said foure and twentieth day of Iune now next comming after the rate of six and twentie shillings

Allomes.

the hundred waight : and so from time to time according to such prises as for the time being Allome shall be sould for within this Realme. And his Maiestie for him, his heires, and successors, doth by these presents will, require, and authorise the Lord high Treasurer of England for the time being, the vnder-Treasurer, Chauncelour, and Barons of the Exchequer of his Highnesse, his heires and successors for the time being, to giue full allowance thereof accordingly; And that these presents or the inrollement thereof, shall be a sufficient warrant and discharge as well to the Lord Treasurer, Chauncelour, and Barons of the Exchequer of his highnesse, his heires, and successors for the time being, as to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, and euery of them, to make and haue such allowance and defalcation as is aforesaid, any thing or matter whatsoever to the contrarie thereof, in any wise notwithstanding. And further our said Soveraigne Lord the King, for the considerations aforesaid, for him, his heires and successors of his highnesse especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and

*The graunt
to set aliens & strangers on worke.*

Allomes.

and meere motion, doth also by these presents giue and graunt vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, and euery of them, their executors, administrators and as-signes, and euery of them: That they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators and assignes and euery of them, at all times heereafter, and from time to time during all the residue of the said terme of yeeres in the said first recited letters Patents graunted, or mentioned to be graunted, shall haue full and free libertie, license, power, and authoritie to imploy, hier, and set on work, all, and all maner of strangers, as well aliens as Denizens, being in league or amitie with our said Soueraign Lord the K. Maiestie, his heires & successors, for the carriage, shipping, lading, transporting, and unlading of Allomes, coales, vrines, and all and all maner of other matters, materials, or things whatsoeuer being fit or necessarie, in, or about the working or making of Allomes, or the liquors thereof, or any waies or meanes whatsoeuer incident or belonging thereunto: And also that they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their G 2 executors,

G 2

executors,

[illegible]

Allomes.

day of Ianuarie, in the fourth yeere of the raign of the Kings Maiestie ouer the Realme of England, being the day of the date of the said first mentioned letters Patents, as aforesaid, as from the said foure and twentieth day of Iune shal be behinde or vnexpired; to the onely proper vse and behoofe of them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, without any account or other thing thereof or therefore to be rendred or paid to our said Soueraigne Lord, the King, his heires, and successors, or any of them (otherwise then according to the true intent and meaning of these presents) and in as large, ample, and beneficiall maner and forme, according to the true meaning of these presents as his Maiestie, his heires, successors, or assignes, or any of them, may, might, or ought to haue take or enioy the same. And as largely amplie, & beneficially as his Maiestie may giue, grant, or assign ouer the same, or any part thereof, any law, statute, act of Parliament, ordinance, proclamation, letters Patents, restraint, & imperfection of, or in these presents, or other thing had, or made, or to bee had,

Allomes.

Redd.

made, committed, or omitted, to the contrary of these presents, in any wise notwithstanding, yeelding and paying. And the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, for themselves, their, and euery their heires, executors, administrators and assignes, and for euerie of them doe couenant, graunt, and agree, to and with our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors by these presents, well and truly to pay, to our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or successors, at the receipt of the Exchequer of our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie, his heires, or successors, for and in the name of the rent of the first yeere to be accompted, from the said foure and twentieth day of Iune now last past, the summe of two thousand pounds of lawfull money of England, at, or vpon the foure and twentieth day of Iune next comming after the date hereof: And for and in the name of the rent of the second yeere, the summe of three thousand pounds of like lawfull money of England in maner and forme following; (That is to say) on the five and twentieth day of December, which shall be in the yeere of our Lord God,

First yeere 5. thousand pounds.

2. yeere three thousand pounds.

Alloances.

one thousand six hundred and ten : one thousand and five hundred pounds of lawfull money of England ; and on the foure and twentieth day of Iune then next following the like sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds of lawfull money of England ; and from thencefoorth for and in the name of the rent of euerie yeere, for and during the terme of five yeeres, then next ensuing after the said first yeere , and second yeere , lastly aboue mentioned , the 11000. li. yeerely summe of eleuen thousand pounds per annum, yeerely of like lawfull money of England , during five yeeres.
at two daies or times in euerie of the same five yeeres by equall portions , that is to saie , at and vpon the five and twentieth of December, and the foure and twentieth day of Iune, and then and from thencefoorth from and after the end and expiration of the said five yeers last mentioned , for the rent of euerie yeere of the then residue to come and vnexpired of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, the yeerely 10000. li. summe of ten thousand pounds yeerely of like per annum, lawfull money of England, at two daies or times after seven
yeeres.
in euerie yeere by euen and equall portions:
That is to say, at and vpon the five & twentieth day

Allomes.

Prouiso to sequester, for non paiement of rent.

day of December, and the foure and twentieth day of Iune by euen and equall porcions, yearly to be paid, at the place aforesaid: Provided alwaies, and it is couenanted, graunted, condiscended, and agreed by and betweene the said parties, to these presents: That if the said feuerall yeerely rents, and summes of money by these presents reserued, or couenanted to be paid to our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires or successors, or any of them shall happen to be behinde, vnpaid, in part or in all, by the space of fortie daies next after any of the daies aforesaid, in which the same ought to be paid, during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, before, in, and by these presents granted or mentioned as aforesaid: That then, and so often it shall and may be lawful to & for our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors, to sequester, and expell the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, & Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, deputies, assignes, and euerie of them, of and from the possession and receipt of all and singular the premisses by these presents graunted, and the same to resume and take againe into the hands

Allomes.

of his Highnesse, his heires, and successors, vntil all and euerie the arrerages, of the same yeerely rents or summes of money by these presents reserued, or agreed to be paid to his Maiestie, his heires, or successors, shall bee vnto his High-nesse, his heires, or successors, well and truly paid, or otherwise actually and truly to his Maiestie, his heires, and successors, out of the profits of the same, remaining in the hands of his Highnesse, his heires and successors, shall bee truely answered and paid. And that yet ne-uerthelesse from and immediately after ful payment of the same arrerages of the same rents or summes of money, and not before, it shall and may be lawfull to, and for the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assigns to haue again, and repossesse the premisses to them by these presents graunted, according to the true intent and meaning of these presents: And our said Soueraigne Lord the King intending that this present graunt, and the couenants therein contained, shall take the better effect, doth by these presents of his especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion for his High-

*The Paten-
tees to reem-ter after payment.*

*The Kings
charge to all Officers.*

H nesse

Allomes.

nesse, his heires, and successors, straightly charge and command all and all maner of Officers, Clarkes, Ministers, makers and keepers of the entries of ships and shippers, and other officers, Clarkes and Ministers whatsoeuer to whom it shall appertaine: That they, and euerie of them shall quietly permit and suffer the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and their deputies, and factors, and euery of them to see, and haue and at their wils and pleasures to make, and take at all times, from and after the date heereof true copies of all entries of shippes, and Shippers, entries within any the Ports, Hauens, Creekes, and places of lading, and unlading, and the members of the same, or to them, or any of them, belonging within his Maiesties, Realmes and dominions for the certaintie, and content of all maner of Allome, which shall be arriued, shipped or brought to be discharged, or which shall be shipped, or laden to be transported. contrarie to the Orders in that case provided, or contrarie to his Maiesties proclamations lately published for the generall and absolute prohibition

Allomes.

bition and forbidding of the bringing in of Allome into the same his Maiesties Realmes and dominions, and contrary to the true intent and meaning of these presents: And that no Customer, Collector, Comptroller, Searcher, or other officer or minister of the Customes, & Imposts, shal take or receaue any entry, or entries, or suffer any entry or entries to be taken, or any composition to be made directly, or indirectly for the Custome, Subsidie, or Impost of any parcell or quantity of Allome, to be brought in, or carried out as aforesaid, nor shall by any meanes giue any warrant, or in any maner giue tolleration, or sufferance for the lading or transporting of the same: And that all the Key-keepers, and keepers of Wharfes, or other places, of, or within these Realms & dominions aforesaid, or any the Ports, Hauens, or Creeks of the same, from time to time during the continuance of this present graunt, shall not suffer any parcel, or quantitie of Allome brought from any the parts beyond the seas as aforesaid, to be landed, or discharged, and laid on land at any key, wharfe, or place within their feuerall charge. And that no ship or other vessell what-

Allomes.

foeuer, which during this presents graunt shall ariue, and come into any part of his Maiesties said Realmes, or dominions from any the parts beyond the seas laden, or fraughted with Allome, more or lesse, shall be suffered to discharge by Lighter or otherwise, any Allome whatsoever, or to come or to fall vnto anie Key or Wharfe whatsoever to discharge and vnlade any part of her said lading, before such time as the keeper of euery such Key, or wharfe from time to time hath giuen notice therof vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, and administrators, deputies, seruants, or factors, or any of them, and shall haue order, and commaund from them the said William Turnor, Richard Bow- deler, and Thomas Iones, their executors or administrators, or from some or one of them, for the landing and disposing of the Allome so brought in as is aforesaid, vpon paine of our displeasure, and of such paines, penalties, punishments, and imprisonments, as by any lawes, or statutes of this Realme, can or may be inflicted vpon them for such their offences committed contrarie to the said orders, and Proclamation,

and

Allomes.

and contrarie to the true meaning of these presents. And that no Water-man, Marriner, or other person or persons, shall carrie, receaue, or conuey, any maner of Allome, from, or out of any shippe or vessell, contrary to the said orders and proclamation aforesaid, or any of them, and contrarie to the true intent and meaning of these presents, vpon paine of imprisonment, and of his Maiesties indignation and displeasure, and of such further punishments as by the lawes of this Realme of England may be inflicted vpon him or them so offending for such their contempt. And our said Soueraign Lord the King of his further especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, doth for his Highnesse, his heires and successors, straightly charge and command, aswell all and euery Iustices of Peace, Maiors, Sherriffes, Constables, Bailifes, Headboroughs, and other officers, of, and within all and euery Citie, Borough towne, or place, within his Highnesse Realmes and dominions: And all and euerie the Customers, Comptrollers, Searchers, and other the officers & ministers of his Highnesse, his heires, and successors, within any the said

*A warrant
and charge to al Officers to aide and assist the Patentees in this behalfe.*

Allomes.

Portes, Hauens, Crekes or places whatsoeuer:
As also all and euery the officers, and ministers which now haue, or at any time during this present grant, shal haue any office, or authority from or vnder the iurisdiction of the Lord high Admirall of England, for the time being, that they, and euery of them shall from time to time during the said terme by these presents graun-ted, be aiding and assisting to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and e-uery of them, and to their and euery of their factors, deputies, and seruants, in the due execution of all, and singular the premisses, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, for the most benefit of the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their excutors, administrators, and assigns, their and e-uery of their deputies, and factors, in as beneficiall and diligent wise, order, degree, and maner whatsoeuer, as they, and euery of them, should, or ought to haue bene to our said So-ueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors, by any maner of meanes, if this present graunthad not been had or made, vpon paine

of

Allome.

of his Maiesties indignation, and displeasure, & vnder such paines, and penalties by fines, imprisonment, or otherwise as by the lawes and statutes of this Realme, or by his Maiesties Prerogative Royall, can or may be inflicted vpon them, or any of them, for their negligence, or contempt in that behalfe. And our said Soueraigne Lord the King of his farther especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion doth for his Highnesse, his heires, and successors, couenant, graunt, and agree to and with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and euery of them, by these presents: That our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or successors, shall not, nor will, at any time heereafter during the terme, in, and by these presents graunted, pardon, release, or in any sort discharge any Allome so forfeited, or any penalties or duties, due for the same, nor shall or will at any time or times disanull, reuoke, or countermaund the said authorities, licenses, or liberties heerein before especiallie mencioned, or graunted, for and concerning the sole and onely making of Allomes, and the liquors

The King will not discharge the Allome forfeited.

To be omitted

Allomes.

liquors thereof, nor make or graunt any other license, or tolleration whatsoeuer to any other person, or persons whatsoeuer; for or concerning the making of Allome within his Maiesties said Realmes and dominions, or any of them, or for or concerning the bringing in of Allome, from any forrain parts into his Highnes said Realms and dominions, or any of them or the transporting or carrying of Allome from or out of the same Realmes and dominions, or any of them, contrarie to the true meaning of these presents; Nor shall commaund, doe, or execute, or cause to bee commaunded, done, or executed any other act; or acts, thing, or things, whatsoeuer, whereby, or by meanes whereof any decay or hinderance shall grow or happen, of, or in the said sole and onely making of Allomes, or the liquors thereof, or of the said prices of the said Allomes, or of any part thereof, or whereby, or by meanes whereof, they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, or any of them, shall not, or may not take the full and whole benefit of these presents, according to the true intent & meanning

Allomes.

ing heereof. And our said Soueraigne Lord the King, for him his heires, and successors, doth further covenant, promise and graunt, to and with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones; their executors, administrators, and assigns by these presents: That if our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or successors, shall doe, or cause to be done, or wittingly suffer, or permit to be done, any matter or thing whereby, or by meanes whereof the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators or assigns, shall be restrained, hindered, or barred from the enioying, or hauing of any benefit, profit, priuiledge or libertie, which by and according to the true intent & meaning of these presents, and according to the covenants, graunts, or agreements in these presents mentioned, and of the part and behalfe of his Maiestie, his heires and successors, they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, ought to haue and enioy: That then in such cases vpon declaration made by them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and

If the King shall not performe these graunts and covenants vpon declaration, &c. the Patentees shall haue recompence by defalcation out of their rent.

Allomes.

Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators or assignes, or any of them vnto the Lord Treasurer of England, and Chauncelour of the Exchequer of his Maiestie, his heires, and successors for the time being, of the losses, damages, and hinderances which they, or any of them shall receaue for want of due performance of any the said graunts, couenants, promises, or agreements, on the one part of his Maiestie, his heires or successors to be performed, obserued or kept, and such proote made thereof as by the said Lord Treasurer and Chauncelour for the time being, shall be allowed to be sufficient, that then and in such cases, the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, shall from time to time haue recompence and satisfaction, for and in respect of all and euerie such their said losses, damages and hinderances, by defalcation of so much money out of their yeerely rents then next paieable vnto his Maiestie, his heires, or successors, for, or in respect of the premises. As by the said Lord Treasurer, and Chauncelour of the said Exchequer, for the time being, shall be thought fit and reasonable.

Allomes.

nable. And his Maiestie doth by these presents for him his heires, and successors, charge and command the Treasurer and Chauncelour of the said Exchequer for the time being, from time to time to make deduction, & detalcation vnto them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators and assignes accordingly: And these presents or the inrolment thereof, shall bee from time to time vnto the said Treasurer, and Chauncelour of the said Exchequer, for the time being, a sufficient warrant and discharge in that behalfe. And further his Maiesties will and pleasure is; And his Maiestie doth by these presents of his especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, for his Highnesse, his heires, and successors, graunt vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, and euery of them by these presents, that they, and euery of them, their, and euerie of their seruants, deputies, and ministers, which are or shall be vsed or imployed in, for, or about the said Allome workes, or Allomes, or the businesses of the same, shall and may at all times

The con-nant for the waies.

Attorney.

Killed in all manner of paper. Most of the business of the city is done by the paper. The paper is the life of the city.
The paper is the life of the city.

heereafter, during the continuance of these presents, graunt, haue, and enioy sufficient wayleatie and stath-leaue, and free egress, regresse, way, and passage, and power, libertie, license, and authoritie to goe, passe, stay, or abide with their, and euerie of their Carts, Waines, Carriages, and otherwise, in, by, and through all place and places, meete and conuenient within his Maiesties said Realmes and dominions, and and euery of them, without let, deniall, or interruption. And that neither they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, and their partners, or any of them; their, or any of their executors, administrators, assigns, ser-uants, deputies, and ministers, or any of them, nor their, nor any of their goods, cattle, or carriages, shall at any time heereafter be charged, or taken to seruice, or for any seruices or vse of or for his Maiesties, his heires, or successors, whereby, or by meanes wherof, the said works, or any of them, shall, or may be in any wise let-ted or hindered: But for the better furtherance & aduancement of the said works; The Kings Maiestie doth also further of his especial grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, charge
and

The Paten-
tees & their partners to be freed from service.

To take carriages.

Allomet.

and commaund all Iustices of Peace, Maiors, Sheriffes, Bailiffes, Constables, and other his Maiesties officers, and ministers whatsoeuer, to whom in that behalfe it shall or may appertain, That they, and euerie of them, shall, and doe from time to time, doe their best endeouors, furtherances, and asistances, for, and on the behalfe of the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones; their executors, administrators, deputies, factors, and assignes; That they may from time to time, and in all places, be furnished and provided of all such, and so many felmes Cartes, Waines, Ploughes, Teames, and other waies for carriages, as shall be fit, conuenient, and necessarie to be imployed, vsed, or occupied, in, or about the said Allome works or houses aforesaid. The said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, seruants, or assignes, paying such rates, prices, or wages, for the same as by the said Iustices and other officers shall be thought reasonable and conuenient; And to the end that the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, To be freed and Thomas Iones, their, and euerie of their exe- from bear- cutors, administrators, partners, deputies, fa- ing Offices.

Allomes.

ctors, agents, seruants, and assignes, may the more freely, and with the greater libertie, imploy their whole endeouours, in and about the working and making of the said Allomes, and the liquors thereof, during all the residue of the said one and thirtie yeeres before mentioned. We do by these presents, of our especial grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, giue and graunt, to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, Partners, deputies, factors, agents, seruants, and assignes, and to euerie of them, That they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, Partners, deputies, factors, agents, seruants, and assignes, and euery of them, at all times heereafter, and from time to time, from and after the day of the date of these presents, for and during so long time of all the residue of the said one and thirtie yeeres before mentioned, as they or any of them shall be interested in, or imployed in or about the said Allomes, or Allomeworkes, shall not be called nor compelled to vse, exercise, or serue in any publicke or priuate office, or other seruice, either to vs,

Allomes.

to our heires, or successors, without the consent, and good liking of him, or them that shall or may be so called; But shall be free, and freely acquitted, exonerated and discharged, of, and from the bearing, executing, or vndergoing, of all, and all manner as well of publicke, as priuate, Office, and Offices, place, function, or seruice, whatsoeuer, either to vs, or to our heires, or successors, or in any publicke, or priuate Office, seruice, and imployment, whatsoeuer, in the Common-wealth: Sauing onely, and except such Offices, seruices, and imployments, as are and heereafter shall be fit and necessarie to be exercised, and vsed in and about the working and making of Allomes, or the liquors thereof, or, in, or about such other necessary imployments touching or concerning the same. And the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, for themselves, their, and euerie their heires, executors, administrators, and assigns, and for euerie of them doe also covenant, graunt, and agree to and with our said oueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors, by these presents, That they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas

Iones,

Covenants to discharge his Maiestie of all payments and charges &c. in the Articles quadripartite.

Allomes.

Jones, their heires, executors, administrators, or assigns, or some of them, shall and will from hencefoorth yeerely, well and truely satisfie and paie, or cause to be satisfied and paid, all and euery the said seuerall summe and summes of money, payments and charges whatsoever in and by the said Articles of agreement quadrupartite, indented, expresse, mentioned, and herein before in these presents particularly recited, which on the part and behalfe of our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie his heires and successors, or any of them, are to bee paid and performed and that in such sort maner and forme, as in and by the said articles of agreement quadrupartite, the same are of his Maiesties behalfe agreed, limited, or appointed to be paid or otherwise, of, for, and concerning all and euery the said seuerall summe and summes of money, payments, and charges, and euery part thereof, shall and will from time to time and at all times hereafter, acquit and discharge or well and sufficiently saue and keepe harmless, our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, and euery of them. And further, the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdler

Allomes.

er; and Thomas Jones, do couenant, graunt, and agree, for themselves, their heires, executors, administrators, & assignes, to and with our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors by these presents: That they the said W. Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors or administrators, shall before the end and expiration of two yeeres and a halfe next after the date heereof, erect and builde so many Allome houses, more within the realmes of England or Ireland, or the dominions of the same, as with those already erected will be sufficient for the making of the quantitie of two thousand tunnes of Allome yeerly at the least.

And for that his Highnesse out of his Princely Price of Allomes. care of his subiects good, will not admit the price of Allome spent within his Maiesties dominions, to be by this meanes enhaunced: The said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, do couenant, graunt, and agree for themselves, their executors, administrators, and assignes, and euery of them, to and with our said W. Turnor &c. their couenant for the quantitie of Allomes. Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors by these presents: That they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Th. Jones,

K their

Allowance.

their executors, administrators, and assigns, shall and will from time to time during all the now residue to come of the said terme, have in their custodie, in knowen warehouses, or cellers within the Citie of London at all times, the quantitie of one hundred Tunnes of good, serviceable, and marchantable Allome. And that from the said warehouses, or cellers all persons residing within his Maiesties Dominions, shall and may freely and at their pleasure, buy and have thereof for five and twentie shillings of lawfull money of England the hundred waight, from the day of the date hereof vntill the said fower and twentieth day of Iune now next ensuing. And from, and at, all times after the said fower and twentieth day of Iune next to coming during the residue of the saide one and thirtie yeeres last mentioned, for and at the rate of fix and twentie shillings of lawfull English money the hundred waight as aforelaid. And so after that rate for any greater or lesser quantitie without any farther or other charge or paiement, vnlesse his Maiestie, his heires, or successors, shall at any time heereafter thinke fit and suffer them the said William Turnor, Rechar

is to be allowed to be for prime & last is not in for warrant

Allower.

Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, to sell Allome to be spent within his Maiesties dominions, at any higher price, then is heerein before expressed; And then in such case for and at such higher price, as his Maiestie, his heires, or successors, shall so thinke fit, and suffer Allome to be sould for, and not otherwise; And to that intent the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, doe also covenant, graunt, and agree for themselves, their heires, executors, administrators, and assigns, and for euerie of them, to and with our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors, by these presents: That if his Maiestie, his heires, or successors, shall at any time heereafter thinke fit, and shall license and suffer the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, to sell Allome to be spent within his Maiesties dominions, at any higher price then is herein before expressed; and shall cause the same to be signified vnto, the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, and Administrators, vnder the hand of the Lord Treas-

Allomes.

surer of England for the time being in writing: That then, and from thencefoorth, and for so long time, onely as they shall be so suffered, or licensed, to sell at any higher price, they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, or as-signes shall pay yeerely vnto his Maiestie, his heires or successors, so much good and lawfull money of England, as shall be at any time raised, improoved, and aduanced by reason of such signification giuen, as aforesaid, aboue the prices, before limited. And shall pay the same vpon due accompt at such place and daies as in these presents are formerly mencioned, for the other paiement to be made vnto his Highnesse as aforesaid, And that they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, or assignes, or anie of them, or any other person or persons, for them or any of them, shall not at any time or times heereafter, during the now residue to come of the said one and thirtie yeeres last before mentioned, receaue nor take from the day of the date heereof vnto the foure and twentieth day of Iune now next ensuing, aboue or any more then

Allomes.

then five and twentie shillings of lawfull English money for one hundred waight of Allome, and so after that rate, nor from and after the said foure and twentieth day of Iune next ensuing after the date heereof aboue, or any more then six and twenrie shillings of lawfull English money for one hundred waight of Allome, by them sould to be spent and vsed within his Maiesties said dominions, and so after that rate for a greater or lesser quantitie (forreine Allome being at this time neere about the same price) vnlesse the pleasure and allowance of his Maiestie, his heires and successors, of some greater or higher price, shall vnder the hand of the Lord Treasurer of England for the time being be signified vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, or the suruiuers or suruiuer of them, their, or any of their executors, and administrators, for the same as aforesaid. And to the intent that the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, or assigns, may furnish the Realme of Scotland from time to time with allomes made in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or some of the domi-

Allomes.

nions of the same, and not be hindered or damaged by the importation of forraigne Allomes, or the liquors thereof into his Highnesse said Kingdome of Scotland, or any the dominions thereof. Our said Soueraigne Lord the King willet and graunteth by these presents. And the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, for them, their heires, executors, administrators, and assignes, do covenant, promise, and graunt, to and with our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors by these presents: That they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, or assignes, shall and will from time to time, and at all times from and after the foure and twentieth day of Iune next comming after the date hereof, provide and procure at their own costs and charges, that there shall be and remaine in readinesse at all times, and from time to time during the residus of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres within some convenient storehouse or other places within his Maiesties said kingdome of Scotland, fit and commodious for the accesse and repaire of his Maiesties said subjects

Allomes.

subjects of Scotland, and not farre from the citie of Edenborough, so many runnes of good marchantable allome made within his Maiesties said kingdome of England or any other his Maiesties kingdomes or dominions; as by the Priuie Counsell of our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, or successors of the said kingdome of England for the time being, or any three or more of them, whereof the Lord Treasurer of England for the time being to be alwaies one, shall from time to time be ordered, appointed, and commanded, and the same Allomes to be from time to time vttered & sold; to all, or any of his Maiesties said subjects or his said realme of Scotland, for the use of the said Realme of Scotland, at such low and vnder prices as by the said Priuie Counsell of his Maie-stie, his heires, or successors of his said Kingdome of England, or any such three or more of them as is aforesaid, shall from time to time be limited, set downe, and appointed, which prices his Maiesties will and pleasure is, shall be from time to time so low, and vnder the prices for which like Allomes brought from beyond the seas thither, can be sold or vttered for, as that

Allomes.

that marchants and others may be discouraged and forbear to bring any Allomes into the said Realme of Scotland. And his Maiestie doth further, for him his heires, and successors, couenant, promise, and graunt, to and with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, by these presents, That they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, shall from time to time during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, haue defalcation, allowance, and deduction out of the yeerely rents, summes of money and paiements, by these presents, reserued of so much money as shall make vp euerie hundred waight of Allomes which shall be so sould in the Realm of Scoland by the direction, and appointment of the said Priuie Counsell of his Maiesties said kingdome of England, to be of the full value and price of six and twentie shillings for euerie such hundred waight. And that these presents, or the inrolments, or exemplifications thereof shall be from time to time as well to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and

Allomes.

and Thomas Jones, their executors, and administrators, to retaine, hold and keepe in their own hands as to the Lord Treasurer and Chauncelour of the Exchequer of his Maiestie, his heires and successors for the time being, from time to time, to make defalcation and deduction thereof, accordingly out of the said yeerely rents, summes of money and paiments, before by these presents reserued: And his Maiesty doth further by these presents, for him, his heires, and successors, couenaunt and graunt, to and with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns: That if any allomes or liquors of allomes shall at any time or times during the residue of the said terme of 31. yeeres before, in, and by these presents, graunted, or mentioned to be graunted, be brought from any the parts beyond the seas, into the said realme of Scotland, or any the dominions or parts thereof, & shall there be vttered, sould, or spent, that then vpon such prooffe made of the importation, selling, vttering, or spending of any such forraine allomes within the said realme of Scotland; as by the Lord Treasurer of England,

L

land,

Allomes.

land, and Chauncelour of his Maiesties Exchequer shall be allowed vnder their seales to be sufficient, they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, shall and may haue, keepe, and reteine in their owne hands: And our said Soueraigne Lord the King, for him, his heires, and successors, doth will and command the Lord Treasurer of England, and Chauncelour of the Exchequer for the time being from time to time to deduct and allow vnto them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, so much money out of the rents and summes of money by these presents reserued and paieable as aforesaid, as may counteruaile and recompence the losses and hinderances which they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, shall receiue in respect that they or any of them shall and may sell and vter the lesse there. And that these presents shall be as well vnto the said Lord Treasurer of England and Chauncelour of the Exchequer for the time being: As also to the said

Allomes

said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, a sufficient warrant, exoneration, and discharge in that behalfe. And furthermor., our said Soueraigne Lord the Kings Maiestie, of his especiall grace, certeine knowledge, and meere motion, for him his heires and successors, doth promise and graunt to and with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, by these presents; That in case at any time or times heereafter, during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, there shall happen any warre, hostilitie, restraint, prohibition, or great and important impediments, of trade or intercourse of marchandise to rise, grow, or continue in forreine parts, or within his Maiesties said dominions, by reason whereof the trade and entercourse for the said Allomes so to be made within his Maiesties said Dominions shall be diminished, letted, or prohibited: That then in such case, from time to time, it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators and

Allomes.

assignes, and euerie of them vpon notice of their, or any of their intention and determination in that behalfe to be giuen to the Lord Treasurer of England for the time being vnder their, or any of their hands and seales in writing, to relinquish and forbear to make or worke all or any Allomes, or the liquors thereof by force and vertue of these presents, to or for their owne vse, or to transport or carry by force or vertue of these presents, any Allomes, or the liquors thereof into any the parts beyond the seas, to or for their owne vse for the terme of one or more whole yeere or yeeres, of the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, before by these presents mentioned to be graunted, the yeere or yeeres to begin from any feast of the natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptist, during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres before by these presents mentioned to be granted as to them or any of them from time to time shal seeme good. And that then the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, for and during such and so much of the residue of the said terme of one and

Allomes.

and thirtie yeeres, before by these presents, mentioned to be graunted. As they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, and either of them, their, or either of their executors, administrators, or assigns, shall after such notice made, so relinquith, and forbear the said making and working of Allomes, and the liquors thereof within the said Realmes of England and Ireland, or either of them, and the dominions thereof, to their own vse, and shall also forbear the transportation of any allomes, or the liquors thereof out of the said Realmes of England and Ireland, and the dominions thereof, to or for their own vse, stand and be acquitted and discharged by and against our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, of and from the paiment of the said yeerely rents or summes of money, by these presents, referued or agreed to be paid for and during such whole yeere or yeeres as aforesaid, and no longer, as they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and eue- rie of them, from and after such notice giuen as aforesaid, shall relinquish and forbear to make

2. If any one relinquish the right to the said liquors, he shall be payed for the same by the said merchants within the said time, if it be demanded of them.

Allomes.

any such Allomes or the liquors thereof to their owne vse, and to transport the same or any part thereof into any the parts beyond the seas, by vertue of these presents, to and for their owne vse; And yet neuertheless, his Maiestie is pleased and contented. And the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, for them, and euerie of them, their, and euerie of their executors, administrators, and assigns, do couenaut and graunt by these presents to and with our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, that they the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, and euerie of them, after such relinquishment and forbearing, and during the time of such hostilitie, prohibition, restraint, impeachment or staie as aforesaid, shall and will at the only cost and charges of our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires, and successors, well and truly make and worke for the onely vse and behoofe of our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, within the said Realmes of England and Ireland, and the dominions thereof, such and so much quantitie of good
and

Allomes.

and marchantable Allomes, and the liquors thereof, as may and shall serue for the expences and vse of the said kingdomes of England and Ireland, and the dominions thereof. And also for transportation as in former yeeres (communibus annis) shall haue beene vsed, & the same to vtter and sell for the vse of his Maiestie, his heires, and successors, at and for such prices as by the priuie Counsell of his Maiestie, his heires and successors, shall in that behalfe be from time to time directed, and shall also halfe yere-ly at all times during the continuance of such warres and hostilitie, prohibition or restraint of intercourse and trade, yeeld vp to the Kings Maiestie, his heires, and successors, before the Barons of the court of Exchequor, for the time being, vpon their corporall oathes, a iust and true view of accompt, and a iust & true accōpt as well of all such benefit, profit, and commoditie, as shall arise, grow, or come of or by reason of all or any Allomes or the liquors, thereof, so by them the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, or any of them, their or any of their executors, administrators, deputies, factors, seruants, or assignes, to be made
and

Allomes.

and wrought within the said Realmes of England and Ireland, or the dominions thereof, to be spent or vsed within the same. As also of all such Allomes, and liquors thereof, as shall from time to time during the time of such relinquishment be transported out of any the said realms of England and Ireland, or either of them, or any the dominions of the same, into any the parts beyond the seas, as also of all other profit and benefit whatsoever, that shall any way be made, and which should haue accrued to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, & Tho. Jones, their executors, administrators, and assigns, if such relinquishment had not beene, and the money thereupon arising comming or growing to be due ouer and aboue the summe or summes of money in and by the said recited Indenture quadrupartite before mentioned to be paid by our said Soueraigne Lord the King, his heires and successors, then being in their or any of their hands, or which they or any of them haue receiued, shall yeeld, satisfie and pay into the receipt of the said Exchequer at the times and feasts in which the rents or summes of money before in and by these presents are mentioned ned

Allomes.

oned and referued to be paid as aforefaid, And that if the faid William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, or either of them, their, or either of their executors, administrators, or afsignes, shall at any time after such relinquishment, or forbearing, as is aforefaid, vnder their or any of their hands & seales in writing, giue notice vnto the Lord Treasurer of England for the time being, that they, or any of them shall and will make & worke allomes, and the liquors thereof for their owne vse according to the former graunts, couenants, and articles before in these presents mentioned, and also transport the same without payment of any subsidies or custome, as by the said former graunts and couenants before in these presents mentioned they may lawfully doe; That then and from thencefoorth it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Th. Jones, and either of them, their & either of their executors, administrators, & afsignes to make & worke Allomes to their own vse and also to transport the same or any part therof without payment of any Custome, subse-die or other dutie, in as ample maner as by any

M

former

Allomes.

former graunts, couenants, promises or articles before in these presents mentuoned, and according to the purport and true meaning of the same, they may and ought to doe during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres before by these presents mentioned, to be graunted to the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, vnder their reservations, couennants, graunts, articles, and agreements, in these presents contained, so alwaies as the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, or either of them, their, or either of their executors, administrators, or assigns, shall after such notice as is aboue mentioned, accompt the beginning of their or any of their continuance of their or any of their making or working of the said Allomes or the liquors thereof, to their owne vse and transportation thereof, without painment of Subsidies, Custome, or other duties from some feast of the Natiuitie of Saint Iohn Baptist which then shall happen during the residue of the said terme of one and thirtie yeeres, before by these presents mentioned to be graunted. And furthermore his Majesties will and pleasure is, and his

Allovers.

his Maiestie of his more especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, for him his heires, and successors, doth by these presents require, and charge and commaund aswell the Lord Chauncelour, or the Lord Keeper of the great Seale of his Maiesties Realme of England for the time being; The Chauncelor or Keeper of the great Seale of his Realme of Ireland for the time being, and also the Chauncelor of his Dutchie of Lancaster for the time being, and euery of them, that they, and euery of them doe make, or cause to be made vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Jones, their executors, administrators, and assignes, such, and so many seuerall letters Patents, duplicates, constitutes, and exemplifications, vnder the seuerall great Seales of his Maiesties said Realmes of England and Ireland, and either of them, and vnder the Seale of his Maiesties said Dutchie or Countie Palatine of Lancaster, of and concerning all and singular the graunts, articles, matters, gifes, authorities, liberties, and things in these presents contained to be had, taken, executed, and performed in his Maiesties said Realmes and dominions, and euerie of them, as they or any of them shal require. And that these presents or the inrolement therof shal be as well to his Maiesties said Chauncelors of his said realmes of England and Ireland, & either of them, as to his said Chauncelour of his Dutchie of Lancaster, a sufficient warrant & discharge in that behalfe, without any further or other warrant fro his Highnesse, his heires or successors, to be in that behalfe had and procured or obtained. And moreouer our said Soueraigne Lord the King of his especiall grace, certaine knowledge, and meere motion, doth for his Highnesse, his heires & successors, graunt vnto the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, their executors, administrators, and assignes: That these presents or the inrolement of the same, shall stand and be in all and euerie thing firme, strong, sufficient, and effectuell in the Law, to and for all respects, purposes, constructions, and intents, for and against his Maiestie, his heires and successors, as well in all Courts as elsewhere within his Highnesse Realmes and Dominions, without any other confirmations, licenses, or tolerations, from his Maiestie, his heires, or successors,

Allomes.

Allomes.

cessors, heereafter in any wise to be procured, had, or obtained. In witnesse whereof to the one part of these present Indentures remaining with the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, our said Soueraigne Lord the King hath caused the great Seale of England to be put. And to the other part thereof, remaining with our said Soueraigne Lord the King,
the said William Turnor, Richard Bowdeler, and Thomas Iones, haue put their seales. Yeauen the day and yeere first above written.

